

What's new
in Paris 1st, 2nd
Place Vendôme, Opéra, Palais-Royal, Bourse, Halles

A sight for sore eyes

shop Called simply “The most beautiful glasses in the world”, this new gallery boutique, decorated in hints of mauve and white, fused with a futurist, Seventies edge, invites you to admire the most beautiful glasses in the world, offering hundreds of stylish ways to read this article in greater comfort or to protect yourself from the sun. Glasses designed by Tom Ford, Alain Mikli, Philippe Starck, Roberto Cavalli, Oakley and Daniel Swarovski feel right at home in this cutting-edge store, which features Bang & Olufsen plasma screens and telephones, Verner Panton seats, and Swarovski crystal. Discover a store that’s very easy on the eye!
16, rue du Pont-Neuf, 1st. Tel. 01 44 88 22 23. www.lesplusbelleslunettesdumonde.com

Follow in the footsteps of Robert Langdon at the Paris Ritz

hotel The success of the Da Vinci knows no bounds. As well as searching for clues in the Louvre or Saint-Sulpice, fans can now treat themselves to night in Room 512 at the Ritz – where Tom Hanks wakes up surrounded by sumptuous tapestries before heading off to the Louvre. Spend the night in the very same bed, then slip on a peach robe and enjoy an American breakfast, while perusing your special diary and an illustrated copy of the book, provided for free as part of the package. A guided visit of the Louvre is also available. Ah, the power of Dan Brown’s imagination...

Ritz Paris. 15, place Vendôme, 1st. Tel. 01 43 16 30 30.

“Ritz and Da Vinci” offer: prices range from 670 to 720 € for a double room. Until 24/08 and from 15/10 to 27/12. www.ritzparis.com

